LIVE! ROUNDUP

STADIUMS AND ARENAS ARE BACK IN THE MIX

SIX60 HAS MADE quite a mark on box-office results this year, since the New Zealand band is the only touring artist with non-socially distanced, full-capacity concerts reported since the live industry shutdown last March. The final three performances on the group's "Saturdays Tour" occurred in February, which lands them on this month's Hot Tickets chart. The top grosser for the month is the Feb. 13 performance at Wellington's Sky Stadium with over $2.3 million in sales. Altogether on the trek, the band grossed $9.9 million from 119,462 tickets at outdoor stadium-size concerts in six New Zealand cities.

TobyMac is also a dominant force this month, taking more than half of the available slots on the 20-position chart with ticket sales data from his annual "Hits Deep" tour. The Christian music veteran has 14 performances at 11 indoor arenas for a $1.4 million gross from 34,317 sold seats. With socially distanced setups as the norm on the tour, the average number of sold tickets per show was 2,451.

Hertz Arena in Estero, Fla., hosted one of the TobyMac engagements; it grossed $145,143 on Feb. 12-13 to chart at No. 6, but the arena also takes No. 13 based on $102,700 in revenue from a Feb. 20 show with Banda Los Recoditos. The concert was titled "La Poderosa Banda" and featured a lineup that included Duelo, Banda los Sebastianes and others. Promoted by Florida-based Arma Productions, the total ticket count was 1,580.
