

Kevin Kastrup Joins Wasserman Music As VP, Casinos

NEW YORK (August 23, 2021) – Veteran music agent Kevin Kastrup has joined Wasserman Music as Vice President, Casinos, overseeing North American casino bookings for the agency's extensive client roster. Kastrup is based in Wasserman's New York office.

Kastrup was previously an agent at Paradigm Talent Agency for nine years, where he specialized in symphonies and performing arts centers, as well as representing artists including A.R. Rahman, Lyle Lovett, Ry Cooder and Wayne Shorter. Prior to Paradigm, he worked at IMG Artists and Ted Kurland Associates.

"I'm very excited to rejoin so many longtime colleagues at Wasserman," said Kastrup. "It's an incredible opportunity to represent so many of the world's best musical artists in the unique space of casino performances. I can't wait to get to work!"

"Welcoming Kevin back and entrusting him with our casino business is easy because we've known and worked alongside him for years already," said Jackie Nalpant, EVP & Managing Executive at Wasserman Music. "He's a well-liked, well-respected professional, and we know our artists are in good hands with him."
